HIGHLIGHTS FROM 2018

MEGA Milestones in my real estate career...

41 JANE STREET

My first listing was definitely the best part of the year, and a big step forward in my career. I'll never forget the cold day of the Super Bowl when we signed the agreement. It probably took a few years off my life, but very much worth it.

ARGO RESIDENTIAL

Jane Street put me on the map! A manager from a top brokerage reached out and later introduced me to Argo. At the end of the summer Jeffrey Carlson was the sales manager at Argo Residential and I jumped on board. It all worked out perfectly!

THE LivNY TEAM

After my first couple weeks at Argo I found 3 of the best agents in the industry working right next to me. They closed 6 transactions in August alone! I needed to get involved and am very fortunate that they have included me on the LivNY team.

UPCOMING IN 2019

RENTALS

New Yorkers know how difficult it is to find a good rental apartment. I myself have been stuck in the same place for over 4 years now! It is the craziest and most chaotic market you could ever imagine. However rentals are my specialty, and I will always be happy to help you find a lease.

BUYERS MARKET

Recently it's been a seller's market here in NYC, however the tide has certainly changed. Now it's a buyer's market, and deals are getting done at prices from 5 years ago. The best part is that I'm the go-to buyer's agent at Argo, and will help you take advantage of all of the opportunities.

NEWSLETTER

All of the best NYC real estate agents will consistently send out an insightful newsletter to their network. It's time for me to follow the leaders! Starting 2019 you can expect mine will arrive every month to make sure everyone is informed of all of the exciting happenings in NYC real estate.

Happy Holidays!

It has really been an incredible year full of many successes as well as the trials and tribulations that accompany this profession. The greatest accomplishment is that I have found a company where I will be able to build my real estate career for the long term. I couldn't be more grateful to have the opportunity to be here in New York City, selling properties and working hard to build a business.
